CCCNJ President's Message:

Happy Easter to all.

By now I hope everyone has recover from this past snowy winter. I want to thank Larry and everyone else for covering for me while I was away.

Our March social was attended by over 60 members. The attendees enjoyed a KFC and pizza dinner as well as many delicious desserts. Larry Soo-Hoo did a presentation on Social Media. We also discussed things to make pot lucks a little easier, guidelines like how much to bring or possibly bringing a paper tent with ingredients or the recipe of your dish. Possible ideas for socials were discussed. Suggestions included tastings events, cooking instruction, sharing cultural awareness, and movie and sporting events. Larry also stressed that volunteers are needed to make all of these events happen. It was a fun and informative evening.

I would like all our members to know that our lease with Grace Lutheran Church is not being renewed. We are diligently searching for a new location. On Feb. 1st we had a meeting about purchasing a permanent location for CCCNJ. We had 30 families that were interested. Please let me hear from you if you have not already done so. At our meeting we decided to form a LLC group and invest $10,000.00 per family to put in a escrow account until we see something feasible in Bergen county and within our range to purchase. We also will have donors from various corporation that will be willing to support us.

Our May social will be our Annual Mother's Day Luncheon.(see flyer). CCCNJ and school has decided all Mothers of current up to date members will be our guest. We are all looking forward to this.

The May Social will be Saturday May 10th 2014 at POC Fusion Restaurant 450 Hackensack Ave. (Home Depot) in Hackensack
