CCCNJ President's Message

Living a Happy, Healthy and Prosperous Life!

Hello Autumn! Bye Bye Summer, Cooler days and colorful leaves have arrived. Our annual Kickoff Potluck Social is October 15th 2016.

All members are welcome to invite and bring friends to attend. This social will not only serve as an event to catch up with old friends, but will also be an open house for our organization. It's a good time to introduce new faces to our community, meet our Board members and enjoy some amazing food and company.

We've had some members express interest in options trading. Since we have a variety of expertise, a great website to find more information is www.tastytrade.com - this website provides free information and training for all those interested in learning to trade the profitable way.

We've also had some members looking for our favorite places to eat. Here's a list of places to check out in Bergen County.
