CCCNJ President's Message

Living a Happy, Healthy and Prosperous Life!

Happy Mid-Autumn Festival!

Mid-Autumn Festival (中秋節) is on October 4, 2017. It takes place every year with the full moon that falls on the 15th day of the 8th month on the lunar calendar. The Mid-Autumn Festival, also known as the Chinese Moon Festival, brings families together to celebrate the harvest under a full moon. The holiday is all about giving thanks, for nature's abundance and for joyful reunions with loved ones. Mooncakes are traditionally the Chinese pastry eaten during this celebration. Chinese people see in the roundness of mooncakes a symbol of reunion and happiness. Making colorful lanterns is also part of the tradition which is a fun filled activity between families and children.

Our annual Kickoff Potluck Social is October 14th 2017 at 6pm.

All members are welcome to invite and bring friends to attend. This social will not only serve as an event to catch up with old friends, but will also be an open house for our organization. It's a good time to introduce new faces to our community, meet our Board members and enjoy some amazing food and company.
